Fr. Victor Edwin has written a beautiful short reflection in the letters column of April Issue of Jivan. Here he reflects tears as special grace of God. Our Holy Father St. Ignatius had that special grace especially during the Holy Eucharist. I would like to bring to your notice a Muslim spiritual writing that Edwin once came across – which he shares there...with the title – Why do you cry like that?

A prophet Shohaib wept so much that he became blind. God restored his sight but again he lost it. Then one day asked, “Why do you cry like that? If it were for fear of the hell, I assure you, you will never go there. If it were for craving for paradise, I tell you, you will surely get it.” “Dear Lord” replied the man, “I cry neither for fear of the hell nor for craving for paradise. I cry for the love of Thee.” “Cry on then” replied God “For to this disease, there is no remedy but tears.”

Dear friends, we are men. They say, men don’t shed tears. vld q cglus ; k jhus dk ; gh yk f. kd vFl j [l r s g q s e° vli l s i m r k g ā D ; k vli j l r s g q v l d q c g l r s g q v x j u g ° r s f o j D ; k d j r s g q
