

Inigo High School extends class rooms

Posted On:9 Aug, 2019 Modified on:9 Aug, 2019 Posted By:davidsj

Ranchi: The Inigo High School at Saporom, run by the Ranchi Jesuits, is growing day by day. The existing structure is being extended for the better learning of the students. Yesterday, two new class rooms were blessed by Fr. Medard Xalxo after the Eucharistic Celebration. On this occasion Frs. Erentius Minj, Florence Kujur, Ajit Xess, Amrit Tirkey and Sanjay Kerketta were present for the celebration.

After the blessing there was a short cultural programme. Towards the end of the programme Fr. Ajit Xess delivered his message to the students and teachers emphasizing the importance of education. It was well appreciated by all.

The School is serving 1900 students (boys and girls) under the able leadership of Fr. Brice Bilung, SJ. who is the Headmaster of the school. Frs. Ajit Kalyan Kujur and Deonis Ekka are assisting him in the administration.